

Radium
①

From Vol. VI-3 (Fink) National Nuclear Energy Series (Biological Studies with Polonium, Radium and Plutonium)
Chapter 4

1. Discusses radium poisoning in work with animal, human occupational exposures, and human experimentation.
2. Single intravenous injection in man by Seil in 1915.
3. Series of patients given radium chloride orally on I.V. by Schlundt in early 1930's.
4. Group of 25 mental patients given radium chloride I.V. in 10 ug doses weekly for 2 to 10 mo. by Schlundt in 1933.
5. One mg of radium injected in human - by Cameron and Viol (1915).